Foreword

Every person is an important part of a group. The worth of each member adds to the value of that society. This value is enhanced when the qualities are so finely interlocked that they join together to form the whole without disrupting it. Each individual re-enforces the significance of others . . . the more facets a diamond has, the more brilliant.

Seniors

Senior status, at last . . . as a group, we strive to attain new goals . . .
 looking forward to a class trip and graduation . . . record-breaking magazine sales help us realize these ends . . . class meetings filled with discussion and disagreement lead to compromise and solution . . .
 With most required subjects behind us, we turn to elective courses to fill the hours of the school day . . . Math 12, French 4, Chemistry, and Art . . . programs provided by BOCES also offer an alternative . . .

Time aside from studies . . . hours filled with varied activities . . . sports, music, drama, art, politics, hobbies and social activities . . . with friends and acquaintances we share like interests and differences . . . many years together have provided for greater insight . . . we continue to change in an ever-changing world . . . we begin to see things in a different light . . . outlooks are altered and philosophies begin to emerge . . .

The Senior Class was led by Mark Decker as president, Steve Ogborn as vice-president, Linda Sage as secretary, and Deb Bradow as treasurer. Leonard Kent, Donna Teter, Corinne Ward, and Evelyn Zuk represented the class in Student Council.

Those students who possess the qualities of Scholarship, Leadership, Character, and Service are eligible for membership in the National Honor Society.

The Society sponsored an alumni get-together this year to which the graduates of the past two years and this year's seniors were invited.

Student Council

Working together for the good of the student body, the Council organizes the school year, filling the calendar with events which organizations and classes sponsor. In addition to the Christmas and Halloween parties, the Council promoted a student baking contest to generate student involvement.

The arduous and oft-needed task of cleaning the school trophies is undertaken by Karen Kingsbury, Student Council Secretary.
